

Crystal Gateway Slug Line Moving April 29

New location: Where Crystal Drive becomes 12th Street South.

- Former slug line location
- ★ Slug line location effective April 29

Due to Police and Public Works concerns about safety and traffic/pedestrian movement on S. 12th Street, the Crystal Gateway Slug Line (informal carpool meeting location) is being relocated effective Monday, April 29.

The new location is just down the block from the old line and begins where 12th Street S. meets Crystal Drive and continues down Crystal Drive. Parking meters have been restricted "NO Parking 3 p.m.-6 p.m." to allow for slugging.

All vehicles please remember to pull up to the curb as close as possible, don't double-park or block other cars and be courteous to others. Problems can be reported to Sgt. John Rizik of the Arlington County Police at 703.228.4098.

For more information about slug lines, visit www.Slug-lines.com.
For more information about carpooling, transit and other commuting alternatives in the Washington, D.C. area, visit www.CommuterPage.com.

